About the Composer

George Rosenkrans

Rosenkrans lived in poverty much of his life. He was eccentric by many measures. He continued to live in his boyhood home after his parents were gone and eventually slept on the floor in the 1 corner of the house where the roof didn't leak. He is said to have had no vices, had few friends and lived a pretty lonely existence. But he didn't let all this stop him from following his passion for composing. George was given local recognition when a military band performed some of his music while on tour in the vicinity. George didn't attend, afterwards saying that he didn't have suitable clothing.

Late in life, George was a familiar figure making his way to the rehearsals of the Grampion, Pennsylvania band, black satchel in hand, stuffed with manuscript pages of his newest march. Among band members, the memory lingered of giving the music of George Rosenkrans a run-through more than half a century after he was gone.

About the Editors

Gary Gillett and Bill Roche

Bill (L) and Gary (R) are march aficionados. They spend numerous Sunday afternoons modernizing classic marches and sipping tasty cocktails.

At the in-laws' family reunion, Bill was in search of a diversion when he wandered into the Elk County Pennsylvania Historical Museum. As good luck and fortune should happen, he stumbled upon the March King of Bennetts Valley. The marches of George Rosenkrans took possession of their better judgment and they are glad to share their obsession with march enthusiasts around the world.

Gary is director of the Missoula City Band (Montana) and Bill is the announcer. These George Rosenkrans gems have all been field tested with the Missoula City Band and have our band stamp of approval. From out of the past here is our offering of great Pennsylvania marches via Montana.

About the Music

All Honor to Old Glory - This march is a good example of the strong patriotic feelings of George Rosenkrans. Patriotic fervor is a hallmark in the works of this excellent composer. The music is what we expect from Rosenkrans: strong melodies and countermelodies, logical chord progressions, running ornamental woodwind parts - light and with lots of motion- music that is uniquely his.
