About the Composer

Richard Eilenberg (1848 - 1927)

Richard Eilenberg composed marches and dances for orchestra, piano and wind instruments. His musical career began with the study of piano and composition and at 18 years old, he composed his first work - a concert overture. He also composed operettas but his most notable pieces were his marches. Eilenberg completed 350 works throughout his life, including ten fantasies after melodies of great masters.

About the Editor

Bill Park

Bill Park has taught elementary and secondary instrumental music for over 35 years in Ohio and Michigan. He holds a Bachelor's degree in Education from Bowling Green State University and has pursued graduate work at Eastern Michigan and Cleveland State Universities.

Bill's band and ensemble music is published by his company, Dynamic Music, plus Band Music Press, JPM Publishers and Great Works Publishing, is performed throughout the US and appears on several state contest lists.

Bill is president of BandMusic PDF Library, Inc., the free online library of band sheet music from the golden age of the town band. The library serves patrons from around the world and provides sheet music for bands from North America, South America, Europe, Asia, Africa and Australia. In many areas of the world, this part of our musical heritage is readily available for the first time through the library.

Beyond the school setting, his conducting experience includes directing the Perrysburg (Ohio) Suburban Singers for 4 seasons. He is the founding director of North Royalton Community Band and served in that capacity from 1998 to 2009 conducting over 100 performances. A number of his compositions and arrangements were premiered by the band. In addition, Bill hosts the Northeast Ohio Community Reading Band and has been Coordinator for TubaChristmas Cleveland since 2002.

About the Music

Petersburgh Sleighride - Op. 57 by Richard Eilenberg was published in 1888 by Carl Fischer. The band arrangement was by F.H. Greissinger. Colorful writing characterizes this musical galop which has been published for piano solo, piano - 4 hands, Children's Choir, Mandolin Orchestra, Full Orchestra and many other combinations. The work evokes images of a Currier and Ives moment straight from the 19th century. In some early publications it is known as "Souvenir of Petersburg."
