CHARLES GOUNOD.

Gounod, Charles

DOB: June 18, 1818 (Paris, France)
DOD: October 18, 1893 (St. Cloud, France)

Charles Gounod was the son of a pianist mother and draftsman father. His early piano studies were with his mother. His first successful opera was not until 1859 with the premiere of Faust based on the play by Goethe. There was some controversy surrounding Faust. Many critics believed it was a far advancement over Gounod's prior works. One critic stated his doubt that Gounod composed it, which prompted Gounod to challenge the critic to a duel. The critic withdrew his statement.

Laurendeau, L.P.

DOB: 1816 (St-Hyacinthe, Quebec)
DOD: February 13, 1916 (Montreal, Canada)

Louis-Philippe Laurendeau was active for many years in Montreal and was bandmaster at the École militaire of Saint-Jean, but later he devoted himself entirely to composition and arranging. Though a resident of Longueuil (near Montreal), he occupied an editorial position with Carl Fischer, the New York publishers. Approximately 25 percent of Carl Fischer's band and orchestra catalogue were either composed or arranged by Laurendeau.

Laurendeau taught as well, and Fischer published several of his volumes of band instruction and repertoire, including The New Era Band Book (Grades 2, 3) and The Practical Band Arranger. He used the pseudonym Paul Laurent.

Soldier's Chorus (from Faust). Published in 1899 by Carl Fischer (New York) and arranged by Laurendeau.
