

Somewhere In The World

(Dans Un Coin Monde)

Words and music by Nat. D. Ayer

French words by R. Beaudry

Intro:

Often I think of the day,
when dearest you went away,
Just because a hasty word was spoken,
you left me then with a tear,
And all through the long weary year,
two hearts I know have been broken.

Refrain:

Someone somewhere in the world is sighing for you,
Someone somewhere in the world is crying for you,
And tho' your heart may be aching and taking most of the blame,
Sleeping and waking another heart is the same;

Someone somewhere in the world is longing for you,
Longing just to know your love is constant and true,
And thru the long weary days, remember always,
Someone somewhere in the world is sighing for you.